Featuring Nisan Trotter - ACCELERATOR of EXCELLENCE!

Growing up in the backwoods of Silverhill, Alabama, Nisan seemed to move as fast as a Nissan 370Z with lots of activity being a part of his everyday life. He loved sports and transitioned from football, basketball, and baseball year-round and students voted him as Most Athletic and Homecoming King. He earned a football scholarship to Bucknell University. Nisan's motivation and inspiration spread across campus. He was the recipient of the Most Inspirational Player Of The Year Award (voted in by his teammates) and the university honored him with the first ever Diversity Achiever Award because of his ability to connect with such a wide group of people. Nisan's impassioned pursuit of entrepreneurship led him to co-founding TROTFITNESS Fit Body Boot Camp, one of the nation's top fitness boot camps. Nisan won the 2015 Fitness Business Summit Personal Trainer of the Year Award. Nisan is a highly sought after motivational speaker and has creatively crafted his life's stories to inspire and empower college students to discover their unique gifts and talents in order to accelerate excellence!
